MARK SHEEKY

SURREALISM

As a Cheshire-based artist, working primarily in oils, Sheeky is known for images that sit somewhere between the surreal and the symbolic, frequently exploring themes of memory, psychology and the uncanny.

He has exhibited widely across the UK, with his work included in the British National Art Collection and featured in prestigious venues such as the Royal West of England Academy, The Mall Galleries in London, and The Lowry in Manchester, and he has won numerous awards.
