SHEILA SCHOLES

CONTEMPORARY FLORAL AND ABSTRACT

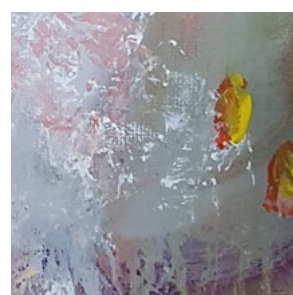

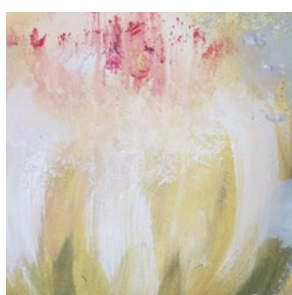

A British artist and textile designer whose work is defined by a joyful celebration of nature, colour, and craftsmanship. Based in Knutsford, Cheshire, she works primarily in painting and printmaking, with a particular passion for floral subjects. Her compositions often feature expressive, botanical forms brought to life through her distinctive use of yellow - a colour she returns to time and again for its warmth, light, and emotional resonance.

SHEILA SCHOLES
ART CARICATURE BY OIL ART ADVISORY

Her creative journey has always run parallel to a love of restoration. Sheila, together with her husband, has spent decades rescuing and transforming neglected historic properties, including the once-abandoned Houghton Manor. This spirit of renewal is echoed in her artwork, which balances delicate detail with a vibrant sense of life and revival.

A former textile printing business owner with international experience, Sheila's artistic practice is rooted in a belief that beauty can be rediscovered and reimagined, whether on canvas or within crumbling walls.
