ARTWORK & STYLE SUMMARY

Caroline Slater is a contemporary figurative painter whose work spans avant-garde portraiture, abstraction and organic form. Working in oils, acrylics and mixed media, her paintings explore the expressive potential of the human figure and the natural world through bold mark-making, layered surfaces and evocative colour.

Slater's portraiture captures both known and unknown subjects, creating emotive images shaped by influences from cinematic imagery, music, fashion and cultural identity. Faces often emerge from moody fields of colour and expressive lines, inviting viewers to interpret character, mood and narrative within each work. Her paintings frequently blur the boundary between representation and abstraction, allowing form and atmosphere to coexist within the same visual space.
