

Dear friends old and new,

As we prepare to enter our third year, we reflect with gratitude on how your encouragement, loyalty, and belief in what we do have helped turn our vision into reality. Every visit, every purchase, and every kind word fuels our creativity and inspires us to keep pushing forward.

We are truly grateful for your continued support and for allowing us to do what we love. We'll raise a glass to sharing many more moments, creations, and memories with you in the years to come and wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

With heartfelt thanks,
Zoe & Max

Terry Pastor

Rock & Pop Photographer

Best known for his iconic album covers for David Bowie. Terry Pastor created both 1971's Hunky Dory and 1972's 'The Rise and Fall of Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars'. The artworks were originally shot in black and white, and then coloured by airbrush and hand tinted by Pastor. Having started his career in a commercial art studio in London during the 1960s (although he was sacked for having long hair), Pastor went on to become a master of airbrushing with his own studio in Covent Garden and continued through the late 60s, 70s and 80s producing illustration and advertising work. He has also produced album covers for the Beach Boys , The Sweet, Alex Harvey to name but a few and book covers for authors such as Arthur C. Clarke, Michael Crichton and Jeffery Archer.
