

This month:

We are delighted to introduce two beautiful original paintings by the internationally acclaimed, Canadian artist Anna Razumovskaya.

Known for her elegant and expressive figurative paintings, Razumovskaya brings together graceful figures, subtle colour and a wonderfully romantic sense of atmosphere. These two works are particularly special, having been commissioned directly from the artist in 2015 as a matched pair.

Anna Razumovskaya

Impressionism / Toronto, Canada

Russian-born artist Anna Razumovskaya is celebrated for her romantic figurative paintings, where graceful figures, expressive brushwork and rich colour come together to create a distinctive sense of elegance and movement. Inspired by the great Impressionists, including Claude Monet and Edgar Degas, her work has a timeless quality, with the poise and fluidity of Degas's celebrated ballerinas particularly evident in her elegant female figures.

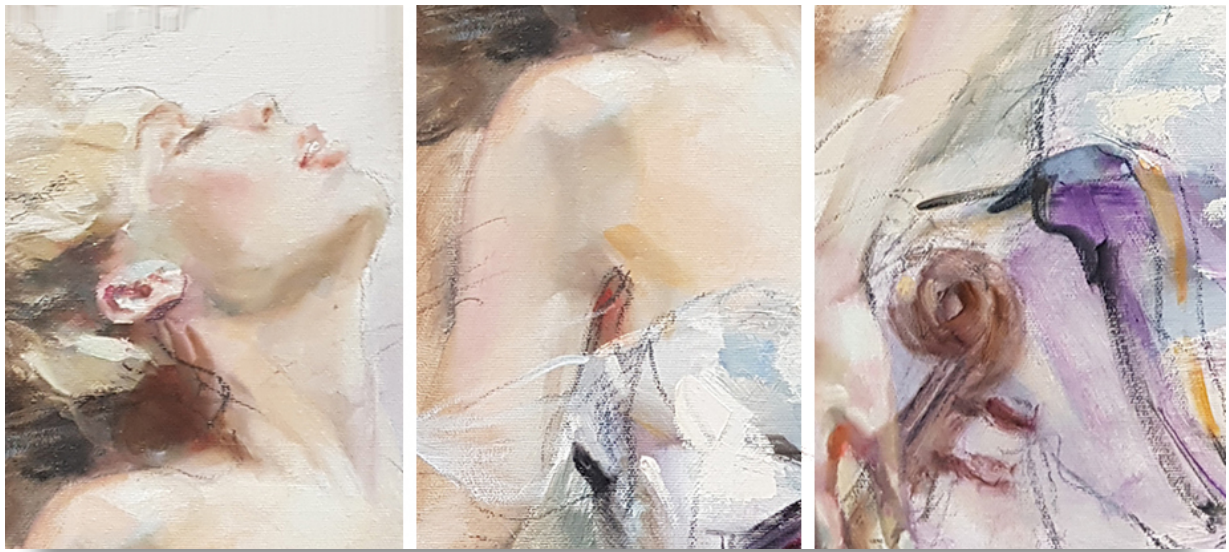

Blending the beauty of classical painting with a distinctly contemporary approach, Anna creates works that feel both familiar and original. Her refined use of colour and composition recalls the sophistication of Pierre-Auguste Renoir, while her expressive style brings a fresh interpretation to the female form. The result is a body of work that is romantic, graceful and effortlessly engaging.

Below we have two exceptional, original paintings by Anna Razumovskaya, which were specially commissioned from the artist as a complementary pair. The canvas and frame sizes are identical, and both are finished in the same ornate antique silver frames with a curving, 2 inch wide, black wooden matte.

Free local delivery is available and UK and International shipping can be arranged by request.
