An Evening of Colour, Style & Art

Huxley

Abstract Post-Impressionism / Cheshire, England

Huxley’s art is characterised by a thoughtful balance between structure and spontaneity, using bold colour relationships and dynamic compositions to convey atmosphere and emotion.

Event: An Evening of Colour, Style & Art

Date: Thursday 12 November 2026

Time: 6.30pm–8pm

Venue: Oil Art Advisory, 8 King Street, Knutsford, Cheshire, WA16 6DL

Join us at Oil Art Advisory for a special evening with Naomi Kenny, founder of Shop & Style, exploring the wonderful world of colour, personal style and texture.

Whether you love experimenting with colour, want to discover more about what suits you, or simply enjoy finding inspiration in beautiful things, this relaxed and engaging event promises fresh ideas and plenty to inspire.

Enjoy a glass of something, meet fellow art and style enthusiasts, chat with Naomi and browse our collection in the welcoming surroundings of our independent gallery.

Naomi will share her knowledge and practical advice on colour, style and texture, offering an insight into how different shades, combinations and textures can work together to create a look that feels individual and full of personality. It’s an opportunity to pick up useful tips, discover new ideas and perhaps see familiar things in a different light.

The evening will also be an opportunity to explore the world of original art. With around 200 original artworks on display in our Knutsford gallery, including original paintings, sculpture and distinctive design pieces, there will be plenty to discover. From expressive colour and intriguing textures to paintings that create a particular mood or brings a room to life, art offers endless opportunities to express your own taste and personality.

We look forward to welcoming you for an inspiring evening of colour, style and original art.

Interested in joining us?
If possible, please RSVP, as places are limited.
